The enthusiastic greeting given Mr, Bryan is in keeping with the reception accorded him Therever he has spoken since the campaign opened. This has been essentially the day of rganized labor. I have never seen a finer gathering of wage workers than that which marched past our headquarters this morning. The men that cheered for Mr. Bayan constituted the brain and brawn of the producing classes of the country. The tribute paid by them to the Democratic nomines for the Presidency was an augury of success. There was nothing artificial or half-hearted in the cheers that arose when Mr. Bryan stepped mon the balcony of the hotel. At the park date for the President a reception that was cratle prinsiples as it must have been to Mr. Bryan himself. In my opinion it clearly demonstrated that Mr. Bryan is as strong among the working classes of Chicago as he has proved to be elsewhere throughout the country. From Chairman Cooper General Clayton later showed a dispatch from Chairman Cooper. It was regarded as a practical concession that the Demo crats had rolled up a big majority. It was as follows:

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 7, 1896. Hon. Powell Clayton, Republican Headquarters

I wired this morning to every county reached by telegraph for reports. Will get estimates, but few figures to-night, as count will not be finished. No, I do not regard the probable result as indicating a strong free sliver about sixteen years ago. He left a will sentiment. It is due entirely to the devising his estate to his wife for life and sentlment. It is due entirely to the manipulation of the Democrats. I must confess to a feeling of disappolutment. I was led to believe we would have a fair election, but it is evident we have not had one. I want to say that the great majority of voters in Arkansas are honest and honorable, but cannot say so much for those persons who are keen to hold office and =
